Business Men of City and County Prepare to Render Resources and Patriotism of County Available to the Nation's Call.

Nucleus of Tremendous Working Force Is Already Formed.

Work of Amplifying the Great Committee Will be Pushed Rapidly Until the Total Will Number Thousands.

Committee Will Go Down in the History of the County.

Plan Enables Everyone to Do His or Her Bit in the Great Works of War and of Mercy.

Other Counties May Follow the Lead of Fayette.

At a meeting Sunday afternoon an organization was perfected, the object of which is to see that in the future Fayette county is not allowed to slip into the slacker column, insofar as the several worthy war movements are concerned, and there is every reason to believe that this organization will go down in the history of Fayette county as one of the most important organizations ever perfected—an organization to which it is a real honor to belong.

That Fayette county in the past has been sadly remiss in responding to the several appeals for money to finance Army Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross has aroused severe censure in other communities where prompt and ready response was made to these appeals. In fact the patriotism of the county has been brought into serious question.

In view of the fact that there has been the lack of an organized, systematic effort to put these movements across and since it is due to this lack of organization rather than lack of interest that the county has been tardy in its response there has been effected an organization, the life of which is to be measured by the duration of the war. This organization is to be known as the Fayette County War Work Council, the governing body of which is composed of a committee of twelve members, who have generously signified their willingness to sacrifice their own time and give their services without stint to the success of the movement.

The membership of this governing body follows:

M. S. Daugherty, Frank C. Parrett, Ed Fite, J. D. Post, A. W. Duff, Roy T. McClure, C. N. Baer, C. A. Reid, W. W. Hamilton, Henry Brownell, Grant Coffman, M. E. Hitchcock.

At the meeting held yesterday a careful permanent organization was effected as follows: Chairman, M. S. Daugherty; vice chairman, Frank C. Parrett; Ed Fite, J. D. Post; secretary, A. W. Duff; assistant secretary, C. N. Baer; treasurer, Roy T. McClure.

It is understood that it shall be the purpose of this committee to organize the county thoroughly and in minute detail with the end in view that when any particular war movement, requiring financial aid, is launched in the county the machinery will be in existence to secure a prompt and ready response.

It is understood by the thinking and patriotic citizenship of the county that this is to be a period of giving. There is no other way out during this awful period of turmoil and strife. No patriotic man or woman can or should want to escape this duty. The boys who have been called to the colors are willingly giving their all and that too in far more generous measure than is possible for those who have been left at home.

The mere fact that our community is far removed from the theater of war is no excuse why there should be a failure to respond to the need of the time. Every man must show his colors. Every man must be a true

GOV. COX, OF OHIO, AND FUEL ADMINISTRATOR GARFIELD CLASH OVER OHIO FUEL SITUATION

GOVERNOR JAMES M. COX

DR. HARRY GARFIELD

"The Northwest has profited by preference in shipment because the hired man of the coal operators became a Federal officer by act of Dr. Garfield."

This charge was made by Governor Cox, commenting on the statement made in Washington by Dr. Garfield, Fuel Administrator, in regard to coal confiscation orders issued by the Governor. The latter declared his action was in accordance with Dr. Garfield's instructions, and that such steps were taken because F. C. Baird when Governor Cox referred to as the "hired man," failed to observe the Washington rulings.

SHORTAGE OF COAL RELIEVED

Thousands of Plants Resume in Cleveland.

Trains Full of Coal Are Arriving in Forest City.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Cleveland, O., December 17.—Relief from the fuel shortage that has caused intense suffering here for more than a week and which threatened to tie up all industry was pouring into Cleveland this morning.

Thousands of manufacturing plants which had been closed down on Saturday resumed work this morning. More than 6,000 tons of bituminous coal from a lake freighter is being unloaded.

It is understood that it shall be the purpose of this committee to organize the county thoroughly and in minute detail with the end in view that when any particular war movement, requiring financial aid, is launched in the county the machinery will be in existence to secure a prompt and ready response.

It is understood by the thinking and patriotic citizenship of the county that this is to be a period of giving. There is no other way out during this awful period of turmoil and strife. No patriotic man or woman can or should want to escape this duty. The boys who have been called to the colors are willingly giving their all and that too in far more generous measure than is possible for those who have been left at home.

SEED CORN WILL BE SCARCE SAYS FAYETTE FARMER

Low Temperature and Low Germ-inative Powers Combine to Render Worthless Much of Corn Selected for Seed, Is Claim.

That the recent low temperatures, coming at a time when the corn was not thoroughly "cured" and coupled with the low germinative condition of the corn this year, have combined to make seed corn unusually scarce next spring. This is the claim of F. E. Eichelberger, of Jefferson township one of the best corn growers in the state of Ohio, and who is regarded as an authority on corn.

Mr. Eichelberger, in a communication sent to The Herald, says:

Ten Dollars per Bushel for Seed Corn! How does that sound?

An editorial in the Breeders' Gazette of December 6th predicts good seed corn will be worth $10 per bushel. I passed it by with a smile, but since that time I have had inquiries from Indiana and Illinois for seed corn, even to the enormous amount of 200 bushels, at fancy prices.

I then decided we were facing a serious seed corn shortage, and since the thermometer has fallen to 16 or 20 below zero, I began to investigate the condition of corn that had matured in the field, was air dried and stored away, only to find a large percentage of it worthless for seed purposes.

The farmers of Fayette county should examine and test their seed corn at once.

Those who will have to buy had better secure it as soon as possible. Should any one have a surplus see that Fayette county is supplied first. It will not be a question of price, but of getting it.

F. E. EICHELBERGER.

SPEAKS ON WAR TOMORROW NIGHT

Dr. Wirt Lowther, nationally famous as a speaker, will deliver an address at the Washington High School auditorium at eight o'clock Tuesday night, and the public is invited. No admission will be charged.

Dr. Lowther appears under the auspices of the Red Cross, and his address is to acquaint all citizens with the true condition in the war zone.

Because of his ability in dealing with the subject of the war, it is expected that a large audience will hear the noted speaker tell the vivid story of the great struggle now in progress, and what it means to America and every American home.

BIBLE CLASS MEETING

The Washington Avenue Bible Class will meet with Mrs. Mary Passmore on Ogle street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30.

SECRETARY.

"lars a week," she tells her former employer, "that will stop the thefts and save the girls." He sneers at the advice and she is led away.

While in prison Mary discovers another astounding fact. While taking up the study of law in her cell she realizes that there are many ways of breaking the law and yet remaining "Within the Law." A clever lawyer may circumvent the law in many ways, she discovers, and still have no fear of going to jail.

This discovery is made use of by Mary upon her release from prison. Without funds she is thrown on the bounty of members of the underworld, forgers, burglars and a woman parasite. She is their advisor. They break the law continually, but still remain "Within the Law." Aggie Lynch, the parasite, enslaves a man of wealth. She suggests blackmail by selling back to him the love notes he has written to her. Mary shows that the

A MESSAGE FROM HENRY VAN DYKE

A Red Cross Christmas Message To Those Who Feel Poor.

I write as a brother. We are a large family. This world war made in Germany against which we are fighting has sent our incomes down and our expenses up.

The pinch hurts, but it is not killing us.

We still have enough and something to spare.

Though we feel poor, don't let us be impoverished by selfish fear.

Let us save in food, in service, in clothing, in luxuries, but not in money.

Let us use it by giving it to the wounded, the suffering, our friends, our country.

Let us keep Christmas this year by keeping up the Red Cross.

Then it will be not a poor Christmas, but a rich Christmas in our hearts.

WAR WORK COUNCIL

patriot, whether in the army or out of it, and those left at home must make sacrifices. Financial sacrifices must give generously of their means, without complaint so long as our boys are in the field.

It is a fact that there will be campaigns for money so long as the war lasts. There will be Liberty Loan, Red Cross, Army Y. M. C. A. and Thrift Stamp campaigns. Fayette county will be allotted her quota and there is no other alternative to be thought of than that there will be a generous and full response to these demands.

In line with the knowledge that Fayette county is anxious and willing to do her full share toward all of these worthy causes, the governing committee of twelve has conceived the notion of effecting an organization that will reach every home in the county.

There has been carefully selected in each voting precinct of the county an executive committee of three members whose duty it will be to appoint a sufficient number of assistants to enable them to make a thorough canvass of their respective communities in support of any of the particular movements requiring help. Like the permanent governing committee, these precinct organizations are to be permanent during the period of the war.

The precinct organizations are as follows:

The Phon d'Amour

Embodying the first vital change in .....Phonograph Construction.....

Now on Display at Smith's Store

There are three critical points in the building of a phonograph—three points where there can be no compromise with possible tone peril: The Reproducer, The Diaphragm and the Sound Amplifier.

It was at these points that Bernhard Fritzsch, "Doctor of Violins" as the virtuosos call him, focused his genius as a master instrument-maker in the building of—

Phon d'Amour

THE PHONOGRAPH PERFECT

THE REPRODUCER he constructed in such a manner as to give the diaphragm the complete relaxation, so that vibration is induced at the slightest impulse of needle-arm.

THE DIAPHRAGM itself is made of wood, seasoned and fashioned beyond any possible danger of warping; and insuring a resonance of tone not attainable by use of any other material.

TO THE AMPLIFIER he brought again the genius of the instrument-maker, building this of double wall of finest violin-wood in order to secure the construction principle of musical instruments such as the violin.

From start to finish—from the time the needle-arm lays its impulse upon the diaphragm until it issues from the two chambered amplifier the tone is true, rounded and full. It is all in the violin-wood construction at vital points—tone-forming points—that makes the Phon d' Amour a distinctive triumph in Phonograph construction; that differentiates it from all other Phonographs.

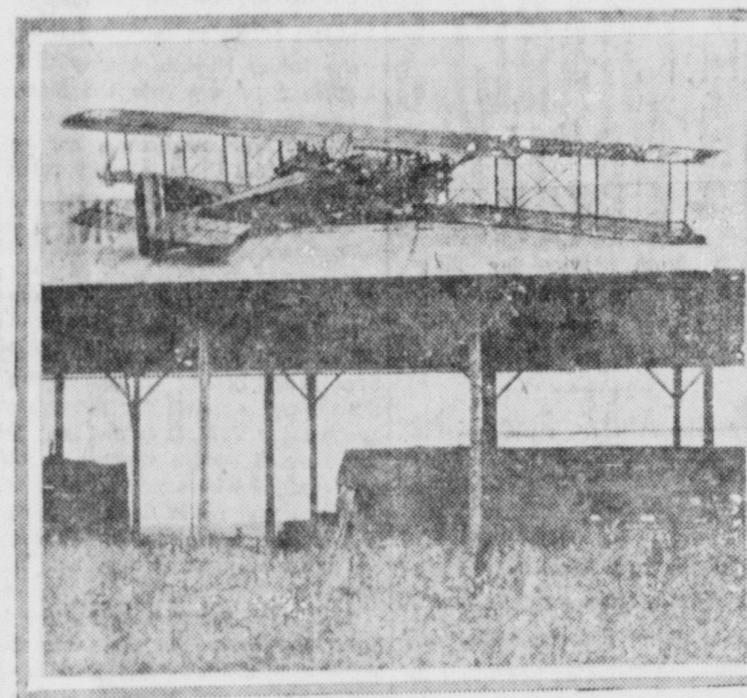

The Phon d'Amour is Demonstrated Daily at Smith's Store. Hear It.

38 CHILDREN OF COUNTY HOME ARE FIRST TO ENROLL

Red Cross Membership Campaign Starts With Rush in Fayette County.

Demand for Service Flags Grows Hourly, and First Day's Demand Is Gratifying.

"And a little child shall lead them."

The thirty-eight children of the Fayette County Children's Home, collaborating with a friend, formally inaugurated the Red Cross Membership campaign by being the first to enroll, and a dollar for each member has been paid. And just to make the response at the Home a unanimous one, the eight adults at the County Home also have enrolled, so that a Red Cross service flag with a star, indicating the entire "family" has enrolled, can be placed in the window of the County Children's Home.

Thus formally and auspiciously launched, the Red Cross membership campaign for 4,000 members in Fayette county by Christmas evening, is now going forward with constant voluntary demands for service flags and membership, and the drive will be carried into every part of the county during the next few days, so that every man, woman and child, who has the interest of humanity at heart, and can spare the price of membership fee—$1.00—can be placed upon the roll of honor and know that he or she has done a real service for humanity at this Christmas time.

Plans for the concerted drive are rapidly forming, and every effort will be made by the patriotic men and women back of the move, to make it a success. But to do this it will require the assistance of every person who can help by enrolling and paying their membership fee.

FEW REGISTRANTS APPEAR MONDAY

Comparatively few of the registrants who received their questionnaires mailed out Saturday, appeared at the court house Monday, but it was expected the number would be greatly increased on Tuesday.

At the court house attorneys are in waiting to render all aid, free of charge, in filling out the questionnaires.

Registrants are requested not to attempt to fill out the blanks without aid.

MEMOIR

Edith Madeline Weiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith was born at New Vienna, October 17, 1900 and was summoned from this earthly life, December 12, 1917, aged 17 years, 1 month and 25 days. She lived in New Vienna all her life with the exception of the last three years which had been spent in Washington C. H. One year ago last June she was afflicted with the measles which left her in a weakened condition. Later she resumed her studies, in the High School, being in the second year of her course, but owing to her weakened condition she was compelled to give up her school work. Her friends come to realize that she was suffering from tuberculosis, to which disease she finally succumbed.

She is survived by three grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Williams, of New Vienna and Mr. Wm. Smith of this place. Also one uncle Carl Williams of Washington C. H.

She was a member of the Loyal Daughters Sunday School Class of the Christain Church and during her sickness confessed her faith in Jesus Christ as her savior died with her hope centered in Him, who said, "I am the resurrection and the life."

She was modest in disposition and a person who loved to be at home. She made good progress in her studies and had she not succumbed to disease could have succeeded in many ways.

She brought cheer and sunshine to the lives of her many friends and leaves the record of a beautiful life as a happy memory.

There is no death, what seems so transition, this life of mortal breath.

Is the gateway to the life elysian, Whose portals we call death.

Another Year of War

The fact that Russia as a fighting force in the alliance against German military power has completely collapsed, no longer admits of any question.

When, if at all, Russia will be able to bear any considerable part in the offensive against the central powers is a matter of speculation purely. Certainly, it seems reasonable to conclude, from present conditions, not during the next year. The probability is that Russia has just entered upon a long period of reorganization and rehabilitation, during which the Russian people must work out the great problem of self-government. What the ultimate result will be, whether the great nation containing, within its boundaries one hundred and eighty million white people, the greatest white population of any nation on the globe, will emerge, in the end, triumphant and intact with its present immense expanse of territory, or divided into a number of independent nations, no man can foretell.

So far as the present war status of Russia, with her tremendous population and resources, is concerned, the world is vitally interested. There is only yet, one important fact in that connection, in doubt.

Whether Russia will become the active or passive aid of Germany is yet, debatable. And for that development only are the allied nations waiting.

Russia's collapse seems to mean at least another year of war, possibly more. It means that during the next year, in all probability, Great Britain, France and Italy must fight a defensive war while the United States is mobilizing her armies and her supplies.

While it is regrettable that Russia did not continue as an aggressive fighting force and thus, probably, bring the war to an end this year, there is no need to become disheartened. The grand army of France under Joffre and the "handful" of British, held the central powers back in 1914 when their armies were vastly superior to those in the field today, and we can reasonably expect the splendid armies of Great Britain, France and Italy to hold them back now until this nation can turn the scale finally in favor of the allies.

"Guessing" the Other Man

Governor Cox, registered decidedly the best score in the clash which occurred last week between the national and state authorities with reference to the transportation and distribution of coal throughout Ohio.

But for the coming of cold weather which severely handicapped the transportation lines of the state, it is reasonable to believe that Ohio people would have experienced a marked relief from the pinch of the coal famine which has gripped them for months and which, in spite of the glittering promises made by Dr. Garfield and his assistants, was growing rapidly worse.

It was a daring act and that he emerged from the contest with success is due largely to his ability to judge correctly just what the men, who held the whip hand, dared not do.

No one knew better than Governor Cox that the federal authority was supreme over the state authority but, he knew that the federal authorities, having fallen into grievous error in their management, did not dare to stop him in the work of bringing order out of chaos.

It is no difficult matter to be able to tell what the other fellow can do, but to sense correctly just what he dare not do, is the ability which makes men successful and brilliant in either public or private activity.

Proper if Conducted Right

Congress is conducting an inquiry into the enormous expenditures that have been made for war and navy purposes and all other expenditures in the vast multitude of activities pertaining to the preparation of the nation for war.

Well that's all right and proper, providing the inquiry is conducted with the proper object in view and confined within proper limits and conducted in a conservative manner.

The people, for whom Congress, especially the lower house, acts directly, have a perfect right to know where our billions of dollars have gone and confined to that object there can be nothing but commendation for the inquiry.

All attempts to find some one upon whom the blame, for everything that has not gone just exactly as we would like to have had it go, may be placed, should be frowned down.

Our officials have been given tremendous powers and they have done, in view of all the circumstances, exceedingly well. They cannot accomplish the impossible and care should be taken to nip in the bud any attempt to "unload" on some official the blame for everything.

Incompetents should be given leave of absence from public service but, we should be careful first, to be certain that no honest official is converted into an angora for political effect.

SWEETHEART KNITTERS.

Demure as though they had stepped from Grandmas' daguerreotypes. They sit and knit, these modern maids (Those old dames' prototypes). Catching the stitch and casting the thread.

Making some man their debtor. Working as long as the daylight lasts, Knitting a sweetheart sweater.

The needles flash with an amber glint In the soft yarn, silver gray. While the eyes above shine with a dream

We call "some far, sweet day"— Round and round with "ribbing" that's taut,

To tick of the midnight clock. Tangled hearts in the unwound skein, Knitting a sweetheart sock.

Widening for shoulder or for chest, "Perling" and wiping a tear, Kissing the stiches above the heart. With a prayer that God be near— While the needles fly in the olive yarn, Forging a soldier's fetters. For they knit and knit, these patriot dames. Sweetheart socks and sweaters! —Memphis Commercial Appeal.

At a meeting held on the 7th of December the members of the Fayette county bar, with the approval of Judge Carpenter, unanimously adopted the following resolution which explains itself:

RESOLVED, that it is the sense of this meeting of members of the bar of Fayette County, that commencing on the 15th day of December, 1917, and until the final conclusion of reducing to writing the Questionnaire, required of registrants for military service from this county, the work of the Common Pleas Court of said County shall be suspended, and that all the members of the bar of the County shall devote their time as nearly exclusively as possible to assisting in the answering of said Questionnaire, and that the Court Room of the Common Pleas Court shall be headquarters for the general supervision and distribution of the work of members of the bar in assisting in the answering of said Questionnaire.

PRIOR to gaining the summit of Caprille the invaders twice were summarily repulsed, but for their final attack they brought up large numbers of fresh reinforcements and the valiant defenders were compelled to give ground.

In the Champagne region of Franco and to the north of the Chemin-des-Dames the Germans were worsted by the French. A small British maneuver south of Cambrai resulted in the capture of a few German prisoners and a machine gun.

RESOLVED, Further, that each member of the bar mentioned shall report at the Court Room on each morning during such period at 9 o'clock for gratuitous service, and that registrants required to answer said Questionnaire, desiring the assistance of members of the bar in meeting the requirements, are requested to apply at the same time and place.

RESOLVED, Further, that a copy of this resolution be furnished for publication to each of the newspapers published in this county, and that said newspapers be requested forthwith to publish the same and continue said publication during the entire period.

"CHIEF" KENNEDY BADLY INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Sergeant "Chief" Kennedy, whose letters have been appearing in The Herald, has been confined to a hospital in France as result of a serious automobile accident.

Sergeant Kennedy was in a million-dollar automobile when the auto was wrecked, it seems, and was unconscious for 48 hours. He suffered such serious injuries that it was necessary to take him to the base hospital, where he remained a day or two before returning to his quarters.

The information of Sergeant Kennedy's injuries was contained in a message received by Mrs. W. B. Hyer, from her husband, Corporal Hyer. His complete recovery is expected in the near future.

It is also noted in the letter that the troops are now quartered in certain deserted houses "just outside of civilization." The letter was written November 22.

DEBATING THE DRY PROPOSAL IN HOUSE

Galleries Are Packed With Adherents of Both Camps.

Senate Must Vote Again After House Acts.

Dry Claims 20 Votes to Spare.

Admit Wets Have Been Making Inroads.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, December 17.—Both wets and dries predicted victory when the House began the six hour debate on the prohibition amendment today.

The dries admitted the wets had been gaining strength for several days but claimed 20 votes to spare.

Although the resolution already has passed the Senate it will not be out of the woods with passage by the House for it has been amended and if the House passes it today it will be necessary for the Senate to vote on the changes.

The galleries were packed with people from both sides of the question. They have come prepared for a full day. There was much concern from the generals on the floor as the debate got under way.

Representative Gord, of Ohio, leading the opposition declared the amendment proposed an evasion of police powers of the state, and threatened the unanimity of the American people in winning the war.

Representative Cooper, of Ohio, for the amendment told the House:

"You look into a hatband or a coat to see if it has union label, but you can look in vain into the whiskey bottle for a union label."

PROHIBITION VOTE COMES AT 5 P. M.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, December 17.—The House vote on the federal prohibition amendment resolution set for five o'clock p. m. today took the center of interest over war issues in Congress today, with prohibition leaders confident of the two-thirds majority necessary for adoption.

As presented to the House the resolution requires ratification by three-fourths of the states within seven years while the draft approved by the Senate last August fixes a time limit of six years.

Let us go among the lowly, bring good cheer to them.

For among the lowly led the Star of Bethlehem;

If we add a ray of sunshine where the shadows fall;

We are filling God's commandment—Peace Goodwill to all.

GRAIN INCREASES IN GREAT BRITAIN

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Amsterdam, November 25th.—The First Board of Agriculture estimate of the harvest in England and Wales is: wheat, quarters, (of 8.25 bushels) 7,164,649, increase, 330,000; hay, tons, 7,550,000, decrease 1,200,000.

The estimated yield per acre, of wheat is 29.88 bushels, 1 1/4 more than in 1916, barley 1.2 bushel lower, oats 1 1/2 bushels lower, beans a smaller crop than last year and peas slightly larger.

With reference to the rumor that Germany would give up Zeebrugge and Ostend if the British evacuated Calais, Von Tirpitz said: "The evacuation of Calais would never be equivalent to the loss of such first-class security. Moreover, the channel tunnel will become a fact after the war. For real security we should have, besides Flanders and Antwerp, Calais and Boulogne. The pretext that we can not coerce Great Britain and America falls to the ground when we consider the growing scarcity of the cargo space of our ruthless arch enemy. The time for final decision will come when real distress begins to take the place of merely threatening distress. That time will come. It is only a question of our keeping cool."

With reference to the rumor that

Oxford College for Women here, Mrs. Emma Lee Elam, of Indianapolis, has been called to the presidency of that institution, succeeding Dr. Jane Sherrill, resigned.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Somewhere in France

November 13, 1917

Dear Mother and Sister:
We arrived here today after an uneventful trip. We have been on board the boat for (here the censor deleted the number of days).

The sight of land surely was welcomed. We are lying in the harbor waiting to get our feet on land once more.

Remember I am just as anxious to hear from you as you are to hear from me, so don't fail to write and tell all the rest to write often.

Don't expect me to write too often, for I expect our time will be pretty well occupied. I will write as often as I can however. We are not allowed to write some of the things we would like to, because our mail is censored.

I hardly know what to write; I suppose some of what I have written will be censored.

So this will be all until the next time.

RAINBOW REVEILLE ISSUED IN FRANCE RECEIVED IN U. S.

Relatives and friends of some of the soldiers in the Rainbow Division now in France, have received copies of the first issue of The Ohio Rainbow Reveille, the official publication of the 168 U. S. Infantry, formerly the old Fourth Ohio.

The paper is dated November 17, 1917, and was printed "Somewhere in France." The lead story is an article by Colonel Benson W. Hough, commanding the men of his regiment for the splendid spirit they have shown since being called into the service. He congratulates the Rainbow Reveille on the first issue and gives it his hearty endorsement and support. Colonel Hough asks his men to endeavor to make as much of their work as possible and to endeavor to bring a smile to the face of the man who is not cheerful.

Chaplain J. J. Halliday is publisher of The Rainbow Reveille and to him Colonel Hough gives much of the credit for establishing the paper. Chaplain Halliday comments on the change in environment the soldiers are undergoing, and urges them to overcome all difficulties and fight gallantly.

Part of the edition is devoted to sports and the Ohio State-Wisconsin score is recorded. Comment is also made on the success of the Ohio State team as is also the Chicago Tribune's assertion that New York did not win the world's series. A "John Wise" column is also carried.

According to the Reveille the first mail from the United States for the division arrived November 13.

JURY FREES MEANS

Concord, N. C., Dec. 17.—Gaston B. Means was acquitted here of a charge of slaying Mrs. Maude A. King, the wealthy New York and Chicago widow. Mrs. King was killed at Blackwelder Springs, a lonely spot in the country near here, Aug. 29, last, when with Means and a party of his friends, she had stopped on an automobile drive to practice pistol shooting. Means and the woman were alone at the time. Captain W. S. Bingham and Afton Means, a brother of Gaston Means, having walked down the road to shoot rabbits. Means contended that she shot herself accidentally. The state charged that Means had looted the woman's fortune and killed her to escape an accounting.

CHRISTMAS RUSH ON IN EARNEST

The Christmas shopping, which has been greatly retarded by the week of unusually severe weather is now on in deadly earnest, and in anticipation of the rush until the shops close on Christmas eve, the merchants have added much additional help so that all persons may be waited upon promptly.

Buying of gift things is moving rapidly, with apparently little or no cessation from the usual heavy purchases for gift things.

It is noticeable this year that the trend is more and more toward things of real use, and of better class than ever before.

This week will probably witness the heaviest buying of Christmas goods that the city has ever experienced, according to a merchant who is well in touch with the situation.

NO HOGS SHIPPED DURING PAST WEEK

According to a local live stock dealer last week was the first full week in the month of December that no hogs were shipped out of this city.

At the present time there are a great many hogs ready for market, and this is usual in the month of December, but the weather conditions were such that no hogs could be moved, as virtually no live stock was handled by the railroads last week.

Shipping facilities were such that even if the hogs could have been hauled into the city, they could not have been removed from the stock pens.

It is expected that a rush of live stock shipments will accompany the warmer weather and clearing condition of the railroads.

PUPILS INTERESTED IN PRIZE ESSAYS

Pupils of the various schools of the city now have an opportunity of winning a membership in the Red Cross as result of a generous offer made by Superintendent McClain, who has offered one membership fee to the pupil in each of the schools who writes the best one-hundred word essay on "Why Everyman Should be a Member of the American Red Cross."

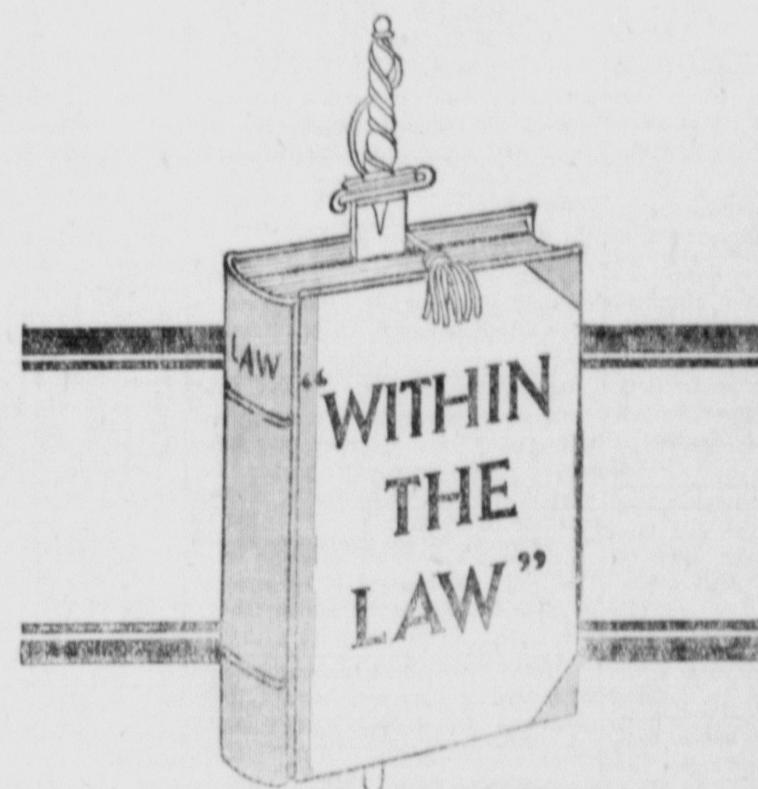

Mr. Stanforth will take possession of the store January 1st, 1918, and will later move to that city to make his future home.

During their residence in this city Mr. and Mrs. Stanforth and daughter have made a host of close friends, and it is with genuine regret these friends will learn of the early departure of the family.

ARMISTICE IS ALL SIGNED UP

By American Press

Berlin, Dec. 17.—An armistice agreement between the Bolshevik government in Russia and the Tettone allies was signed at Brest Litovsk, according to an official communication issued here. The armistice became effective at noon today, and is to remain in force until Jan. 14.

A provision in the armistice agreement is that peace negotiations are to begin immediately after the signing of the armistice.

The text of the communication follows: "An armistice agreement was signed at Brest Litovsk by plenipotentiary representatives of the Russian upper army administration on the one hand and those of the upper army administration of Germany, Austria-Hungaria, Bulgaria and Turkey on the other hand. This armistice begins at noon, Dec. 17, and remains in force until Jan. 14, 1918. Unless seven days' notice is given, it continues in force automatically. It extends to all the land, air and naval forces of the common fronts. According to clause 9 of the treaty, peace negotiations are to begin immediately after the signing of an armistice."

MASCOTS TABOOED

Chillicothe, December 17. — Col. K. W. Walker of the 330th Infantry has ordered all mascots, owls, dogs, etc., out of camp. The move is taken as a sanitary measure, as it is feared these pets have or will become disease carriers.

HAS GREATLY INCREASED HIS FARM CROP YIELDS

Increasing Soil Fertility and Raising Live Stock Have Been Profitable Practices.

One of the speakers at the next farmers' institute is C. R. Wagner. He has had 20 years' experience under the guidance of his father on a live stock and grain farm and for 27 years he has had a farm of his own. Most of his crops have been marketed through his live stock. For several years he showed stock at leading fairs and expositions.

For 10 years Mr. Wagner has been engaged in farmers' institute work in Ohio, West Virginia, Michigan and Maryland. He managed the farmers' institutes in Ohio when they were under the supervision of the state agricultural commission.

Speaks at the 13th annual Farmers Institute at Beuna Vista, next Friday and Saturday.

RUSH XMAS PARCELS TO THE POST OFFICE

It is most important that people mail their Christmas packages at once if they reach their destination before Christmas day.

The congested condition of the mail this year exceeds anything ever known—with transportation facilities badly handicapped. The rural route mail service has been demoralized by the heavy snows and if more snow falls will make conditions even worse.

The large amount of mail in transit this Christmas also adds to the difficulties in handling it.

Hurry your Christmas parcels to the post office if you expect Uncle Sam to get them out by the 25th.
